

April 30, 1975

PRESIDENT: Well, Senator, we can't worry about whether it is a slow or fast draw.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well, we can if it is our vote.

PRESIDENT: Fine.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: Well, I would request that the Chair instruct the Clerk that in the future that he do not record until after he has been ordered to record and that he not anticipate the Chair.

PRESIDENT: Well, that is what he did this time. I saw no dereliction on his part this time, Senator.

SENATOR CAVANAUGH: He anticipated the Chair.

PRESIDENT: Well, you...turn him off. Senator Dworak.

SENATOR DWORAK: Now, Mr. President, I move that LB 349 be advanced to E & R for engrossment.

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the bill be advanced? All those in favor say aye. Contrary nay. Senator Warner. Request of a machine vote on the advancement. Record your vote on advancing the bill. Have you voted? On the count of three, record, Mr. Clerk. One, two, three, record.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 13 nays, 7 not voting.

PRESIDENT: The bill is advanced. In the North balcony, from Papillion, Senator Keyes advises me that there are 12 students from Papillion Grade School. We are happy to have you here. And also, Senator Maresch has 22 grade school students from Davenport, Nebraska. We are happy to have both of you groups here in the Legislature. Thank you for coming.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 74.

SENATOR DWORAK: Mr. President, I move that LB 74 be advanced to E & R for engrossment.

CLERK: No. Mr. President, there is a series of amendments to the bill. The first one is offered by Senator Keyes which is set out in full in the Legislative Journal on Page 1334.

PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Mr. Speaker.

PRESIDENT: Could we have a little more order in the Chamber for Senator Keyes.

SENATOR KEYES: Sometimes when the news gets on the floor of the Legislature, it seems that that is the only thing that counts. And I think they have a place and sometimes I would like to see them in their place, which probably hasn't gained me any friends but it has expressed my opinion. Thank you, Don. You are where you belong. I introduced this amendment to the bill for the simple reason that the Governor does not have any money in his budget for the Plant Science Building. I understand that the Budget Committee
